To Our Valued Customers,

The level of concern around the threat and spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19) around the globe, and particularly in the U.S., reached new heights this week.

As your trusted partner, we want you to know that Burlington Safety Laboratory, Inc. remains fully operational. We are taking precautions prescribed by the CDC and the World Health Organization (WHO) in all our offices and laboratories. We don't expect any interruptions in the level of service to your business. Our lab testing services has been deemed as an Essential Utility Service organization in providing tested PPE equipment to utility company service personnel. We are dedicated to providing you the highest quality of service as possible.

Additionally, we are closely monitoring the ever-evolving situation in order to respond to and prioritize the needs of our clients, as well as the health and safety of our employees. In the meantime, we will continue to stay connected with on any updates.

Thank you,

Burlington Safety Laboratory, Inc.
